

Stacy Barnett

Advanced Nosework Seminar

Sunshine Obedience School, Council Bluffs, Iowa

Friday-Sunday
January 25-27, 2019

Stacy Barnett is a licensed Judge for AKC Scent Work and is retained in an advisory position with the AKC as a Contractor for the AKC Scent Work program. With this and her degree in Chemical Engineering, Stacy has developed a solid understanding of Scent Theory with many tools in her toolbox. Stacy prides herself on being able to bring creative solutions to build odor obedience, confidence, drive and motivation for the sport. Her mantra is CONFIDENCE, MOTIVATION, SKILLS and STAMINA. Stacy is the author of the popular blog, Scentsabilities Nosework, as well as being an in-demand clinician for seminars in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Day One: CONFIDENCE AND MOTIVATION

Did you know that there are three kinds of Confidence? And that your motivation problem might not be motivation at all? Or maybe you DO have a motivation problem...Learn how to tell the difference and how to address the root problem. And, what about the KEY to success...AROUSAL!
Learn about how arousal and emotion can contribute to your success and explore how to regulate them. Practice exercises and situational hides to build team confidence and to get the dog "in drive".

Day Two: WIN BY A NOSE: TRAINING AND TRIALING STRATEGIES

Learn the "secret sauce" to being the best competitive team that you can be with your dog. Learn the nuances of handling, reading your dog, managing arousal, teamwork and mental management. Delve in depth into each of these critical components!

Day Three: First half of the day will continue with Win By A Nose, second half Buried and Handler Discrimination

Bonus!

Stacy will be giving those who are signed up to work or audit at this seminar a PRIVATE webinar on Handler Discrimination on Thursday, January 3, at 7 PM. Cost will be $20 plus $3 Eventbrite fee. If you aren't available that evening, you will get a link so you can watch it later. You must register ahead of time, details will be sent with your confirmation. This will be so we can practice the basics of Handler Discrimination before Stacy comes, and move on to more advanced concepts during the seminar itself.
